

DEAR GUEST, HI! WELCOME TO MY HOME!

MY NAME IS _____

AND I AM A _____

Please keep the following points in mind so that we can both enjoy our time together.

▶ You might scare me. That isn't anything against you, dear guest; I'm just shy!

▶ If I lean away, I do not want to be touched. If I don't lean away, please wait until my owner gives you permission before attempting to pick me up.

▶ Please do not touch me through the cage bars. I can be territorial and might resort to biting you to protect my home.

▶ Please do not feed me anything! Some foods, such as avocados, chocolate, alcohol and caffeine can make me very ill, so play it safe and don't offer me food without my owner's approval first. I might really, really want what's on your plate and go to any means to get it, but don't let me have it!

▶ I might be loud, but you are in my home! (I might be loud in your home, too, to be fair...) Warning! I tend to be an early riser, as in as soon as the sun comes up, as a matter of fact. I also like to scream around sundown, so everyone knows it's almost bedtime!

THANKS FOR VISITING!

BIRDTALK®

Bird Channel.com
the website for bird lovers

