

October 2006

October 2006

8-25-2006

This month: October 2006 INSIDE

A GR8 Way 2 Talk Birds Break the online chat code and open up a whole new world. By Marguerite Floyd

Cage Me Right BIRD TALK reports on the latest caging trends. By Rose Gordon

A Blue-Eyed Cockatoo Meet the least-known of the cockatoos. By Joseph Forshaw/Photos by Cyril Laubscher

Behind The Feathers: Umbrella Cockatoo Cockatoos are sugar and spice and everything nice, but don't turn your back on them. By Sandee L. Molenda, C.A.S.

My Bird, Myself 2006 Photo Contest Winners These winning photos show the special bond between owners and their birds.

Piecing Together The Pionus Puzzle The latest on wild Pionus parrots might explain why your Pi does what it does. By Elise Kaplan

Conserving Africa's Meyer's Parrot After more than a year of observations, this researcher thinks the Meyer's parrot might just be the missing link between all Africa parrot species. By Steve Boyes

BT STYLE

Your Bird, Your World Decorate The Tropical Way By Susan Chamberlain

New 4 You The Latest Products

Hot Finds Innovative Products

Avian Flair Handbags and Shoes

COLUMNS Causes & Cures Out-Of-Whack Feathers By Margaret A. Wissman, DVM, Dip. ABVP – Avian Practice

Heart To Heart A Little Birdie Told Me By Chris Davis

Parrot Psychology Squelch Excessive Screaming By Liz Wilson, CVT, CPBC

Doves & Pigeons Saving Imperial Pigeons By Robert Alison, Ph.D.

AviCulture Behind The U.S. Quarantine By Dick Schroeder

Small Birds Feline Fatale By Diane Grindol

EVERY MONTH Editorial Mailbag FYI Avian Marketplace Show Calendar Gallery Showcase Avian Directory Small Birds
Directory Avian Buyers Guide Kids Talk Back Advertisers Index Watch The Birdie