

The BirdChannel Newswire - June 28, 2008

Stay up-to-date with the latest bird news from all around the world

Posted: June 28, 2008, 5 a.m. EDT

Family Searches For Lost African Grey Parrot

Yozzer, an African grey parrot, has been seen about three times since he flew out the front door of his home more than a week ago, reports BBC News. Read Article>>

Thirty Birds Stolen From Australian Aviary

Lismore Police reach out to the public for help in locating 30 birds stolen from the Lismore Heights aviary reports The Northern Rivers Echo. Read Article>>

Parrot Found In Manchester Storeroom

An African grey parrot was found by a staff member of the Greater Manchester West Mental Health NHS Foundations Trust, reports the BBC. Read Article>>

Texas Family Sues Pet Shop Chain

The family of a man who died from contracting psittacosis is suing the pet shop chain they bought the bird from, reports 3 News. Read Article>>

Kakapo On Display In New Zealand

Visitors could view six of the green parrots over the weekend reports The Southland Times. Read Article>>