

The BirdChannel Newswire - August 7, 2008

Stay up-to-date with the latest bird news from all around the world

Posted: August 7, 2008, 3 p.m. EDT

Red-fronted Macaw Stolen In Broad Daylight From California Pet Store

"Parrots Naturally" pet store owner says thieves stole a red-fronted macaw from its perch, reports KTLA-TV. Read Now>>

South American Jabiru Stork Sighted In Louisiana

The jabiru stork has been spotted fewer than twelve times in the United States, reports The Associated Press. Read Now>>

Missing African Grey Parrot Returns Home After Talking To Passerby

A missing African grey parrot is discovered when he says "Hello" to a man walking his dog, reports BBC News. Read Now>>

Presence Of Rare Kingfishers Halts Building Work At England's Chester Zoo

Threatened Kingfishers have made the Chester Zoo home during their breeding season, reports the Chester Chronicle. Read Now>>