

The BirdChannel Newswire - August 29, 2008

Stay up-to-date with the latest bird news from all around the world.

Posted: August 29, 2008, 5 a.m. EDT

African Grey Parrot Reunited With Family

A missing African grey parrot was reunited with its owners after another family read about his disappearance in an article, reports the Evening Post. Read Now>>

Indian Ring-necked Parakeets Flock To The UK

Its estimated taht almost 5,000 Indian Ring-necked parakeets have taken up residency in the south east of England, reports the Watford Observer. Read Now>>

Students Travel To Australia To Help Orange-bellied Parrots

A group of students traveled to Australia to help build fences, plant trees and provide food for the dwindling population of orange-bellied parrots, reports The Mount Airy News. Read Now>>

Know of some breaking bird news? Submit it to BirdChannel here>>