

The BirdChannel Newswire - April 2, 2009

Stay up-to-date with the latest bird news from around the world.

Posted: April 2, 2009, 3:15 p.m. EDT

Kakapo Population Reaches 100

The flightless kakapo's population has reached more than 100. Efforts are being made to keep the bird from going extinct, reports The Independent World. Read More>>

Parrot "Boot Camp" In Scotland

Parrots with behavioral issues can go to a sanctuary in Scotland where they can enroll in "boot camp" to help them unlearn unwanted behaviors, reports STV. Read More>>

Skateboarding Parrot Stolen Off Front Porch

Gordo, a 30-year-old Amazon, who was known for being able to skateboard, was stolen from its owner's front porch, reports MercuryNews.com. Read More>>

New Conservation Zone For Yellow-Eared Parrot

The critically endangered yellow-eared parrot has its second conservation zone due to Fundación ProAves, a nonprofit environmental organization in Colombia, reports WildlifeExtra.com. Read More>>